NZ market weekly update

The market update is available to read online now. Read more.

List of licensed summerfruit exporters

Each year the New Zealand Horticulture Export Authority publishes a list of licensed summerfruit exporters on its website. Here's a link to the list. Read more.

Summerfruit maturity guides available

With the summerfruit season underway it's not too late to order these guides to help pickers and QCs in their work. Our colour-based maturity guides are designed for on orchard use and to help summerfruit growers make good harvest and packing decisions. There is a useful selection of guides available to suit most varieties of apricots, nectarines, peaches and plums. For more information or request the guides, contact Richard Mills or email info@summerfruitnz.co.nz
